

FABLE CONF' 19

Being a sponsor at FableConf Antwerp 2019

After the successes of Bordeaux and Berlin, FableConf will rise again in the city of Antwerp. Brought to you by a vibrant community around the famous F# to JavaScript compiler. This year we will again bring together the greatest minds in the Fable and F# communities.

FableConf presents the best opportunity to reach out the community, a group of seasoned F# developers and future potential from all over Europe and beyond. It gives you the possibility to promote your company, product or service and connect in a gentle fashion.

Sponsorship Packages & Benefits

There are three formulas to get involved as a sponsor: Silver, Gold and Diamond.
